Qualitative feedback

Has the training program covered what you expected? If partly or no, why?

What topic/issue has been the most important for you?

- How to approach a situation, questioning to use, straight-talking
- Resilience/ resistance
- Understanding DV in context and relate to our work
- Understanding via group discussion
- Response based practice – word tool

What topic/ issue has been the least important for you?

- The history of DV e.g. women's rights and reforms
- Timeline of women's rights
- Strategies managing issues around staying safe
- Defining DV

What impact will this training have on your work?

- It has given me tools and knowledge to use in future situations
- Recognition; screening and assessment framework; strategy; resistance; paper tool
- Strategies of working with men and women in DV situations
- I will change how I can take on the additional role to supporting safety and explore what that really means and how important it really is
- It sharpened my skills in developing conversations around violent behaviour
- More in-depth knowledge and some strategies to implement

Any other comments about the training course

- This is a course to run over 2-days to cover all areas * 2
- I enjoyed the open discussion and opportunity to explore topics
- It was great to have a male trainer discussing DV. It was also good to have a mix of streams from FACS and how each person deals with DV
- The video needs to be captioned to improve access to what is being said. The training is very intense and dealing with DVD without captioning is pretty stressful.
- Useful!
