Qualitative feedback

Has the training program covered what you expected? If partly or no, why?

- Expecting more interactive practice or technique

What topic/issue has been the most important for you?

- Values based work (understanding clients languages around values and responding to them in line with their values)
- Tools to use with families
- Tools for engaging men
- Overall good topics. A lot contributed to the main topic of engaging men in DV and FV work
- Practical skills and use in practice
- Camp fire and coke bottle, body language
- Core values. Would have liked to do and identify more so the values.
- All

What topic/ issue has been the least important for you?

- None- it was all helpful
- All important
- Definitions of DV and violence
- None

What impact will this training have on your work?

- It already had an impact as I used tools learnt straight away with my work with men. Increased my reflective practice around my work and gave me more tools to engage men
- Knowledge and experience of facilitator, excellent pace and content great. Will be able to further reflect and use information directly in work role.
- New tools and hope for change
- Assist with engaging with fathers in family home
- Gently challenging men
- Can't say at this stage
- More skills, better understanding

Any other comments about the training course

- I found David informative, engaging and very practical and easy to understand. The program was transformative for me on both a professional and personal level. Thank you 😊
- I am really interested in further training and will relay tools to supervisor. Thank you
- Could have been a 2 day course. Good to have knowledge of research authors for further learning.
- Copy of slides would be helpful
- Thank you Dave
